

School Level Examination
SLE 2024

SET:

I

SKILL EDUCATION

Subject Code:

8	0	1
---	---	---

Total Questions: 20

Total Marks: 80

Time: 1 hour

DO NOT OPEN THIS BOOKLET UNTIL INSTRUCTED TO DO SO

- All questions are compulsory.
- Read the instructions on the ANSWER SHEET and fill in your NAME, CLASS and OTHER INFORMATION.
- To mark your choice of answer by darkening the circles in the ANSWER SHEET, use an HB PENCIL only.
- You MUST record your answers on the ANSWER SHEET only.
- There are 20 MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS. Each question carries FOUR marks. There are 4 options carrying different marks from 1 – 4. The most appropriate option carries 4 marks and the least appropriate option carries 1 mark. Tick the most appropriate answer according to the question.
- Marks are NOT deducted for incorrect answers.
- Return the ANSWER SHEET to the invigilator at the end of the examination.

GRADES
3-5

This question paper contains a total of 20 questions.

1. What is the most creative way to keep your school supplies organized?
(a) Throwing them all in your desk. (b) Using a pencil case.
(c) Labeling and decorating boxes for each type of supply.
(d) Making your own organizers from old cereal boxes and jars.
2. Madhav wants to surprise his friend on his birthday. Which of the following gift ideas shows the most creativity?
(a) A store-bought toy (b) A handmade friendship bracelet
(c) A book about his favorite heroes
(d) A handmade photo book showing their memories together
3. If you accidentally spill paint on your project, what is the most creative way to fix it?
(a) Throwing the project away and starting over
(b) Covering the spill with a sticker
(c) Turning the spill into part of your design by making it look like something intentional
(d) Using a marker to draw over the spill
4. How would you help a friend who seems sad?
(a) Offer to play a game together to cheer them up.
(b) Ask them what's wrong and listen to their feelings.
(c) Tell them to stop being sad and be happy instead.
(d) Ignore them and hope they feel better on their own.
5. What would you do if you feel angry at a friend?
(a) Blame them and yell at them and start a fight.
(b) Take deep breaths and count to ten to calm down.
(c) Ignore them and refuse to talk to them.
(d) Talk to them calmly about why you're upset and try to find a solution together.
6. Your younger sibling is upset because they lost their favorite toy. How would you comfort them?
(a) Laugh at your sibling for being upset over a toy.
(b) Tell your sibling to stop crying and get over it.

- (c) Ignore your sibling and continue playing with your own toys.
- (d) Give your sibling a hug and reassure them that you'll help them find the toy.
7. During a game of cards with your friends, there's confusion about the rules. What would you do to resolve the confusion?
- (a) Get upset and refuse to play until everyone agrees to follow your rules.
- (b) Explain the rules calmly to your friends and suggest playing a practice round to clarify.
- (c) Make up new rules on the spot and insist everyone follows them.
- (d) Ask an adult to come and tell everyone the correct rules.
8. Your class is organizing a fundraiser, and you're asked to lead the team. How would you lead the planning committee to ensure that the fundraiser is successful?
- (a) Tell everyone what to do without considering their ideas.
- (b) Ignore the team and try to do everything yourself.
- (c) Hold regular meetings to discuss ideas and make decisions together.
- (d) Assign tasks to everyone and expect them to complete them without any guidance.
9. Your class needs to elect a school head through elections. What would you do to convince your classmates to vote for you?
- (a) Tell everyone they should vote for you because you're the best.
- (b) Don't bother trying to get votes because it's too much work.
- (c) Share your ideas and why you'd be a good representative during a class meeting.
- (d) Lead by example by actively participating in school activities and listening to your classmates' concerns to show them you're a reliable representative.
10. You're in a science class, and you don't understand a new experiment. What would you do to make sure you understand it?
- (a) Get upset and interrupt the class by being rude to the teacher.
- (b) Ignore your confusion and keep trying the experiment.
- (c) Raise your hand and ask the teacher to explain the experiment again.
- (d) Wait until after class and ask your friends to explain the experiment to you.
11. You're asked to share with your classmates about your favorite hobby during a class discussion. You feel a bit nervous about speaking in front of everyone.

GRADES
3-5

How would you prepare to talk about your favorite hobby in front of your classmates?

- (a) Decide not to share because you're too nervous.
- (b) Practice what you want to say a few times by yourself before your turn to speak
- (c) Try to forget about your nervousness and speak anyway.
- (d) Read directly from your practice notes to make sure you don't forget anything.

12. During a test in your classroom your friend, sitting next to you, keeps peeking at your paper. They seem to be copying your answers instead of figuring out the answers themselves. What should you do?

- (a) Let your friend copy your answers because you don't want them to get into trouble.
- (b) Tell your friend nicely to stop cheating and do their own work.
- (c) Move your paper so your friend can't see, but don't tell anyone about it.
- (d) Tell the teacher about your friend's cheating after the test is over.

13. Your friend forgot to bring their lunch to school. What should you do?

- (a) Ignore it and enjoy your own lunch.
- (b) Make fun of them for forgetting their lunch.
- (c) Pretend like you didn't notice and avoid talking to them.
- (d) Offer to share your lunch with them or help them find a solution.

14. Your grandfather asks you to accompany him for a walk in the park, but you had other plans. What would you do?

- (a) Tell him you're too busy and can't go with him.
- (b) Agree to go but complain the entire time.
- (c) Lie to him about being sick to avoid spending time with him.
- (d) Excitedly agree and enjoy spending quality time with your grandfather.

15. Your friend who is the class topper, is feeling very nervous about the math exam. How can you help them feel better?

- (a) Tell them to take deep breaths and remind them that they've studied well and there is nothing to worry about.
- (b) Ask him to cheat in the exam to ensure he scores well.
- (c) Ignore his feelings and focus on your exam.
- (d) Make fun of him and make him feel more worried by saying, math exam is very scary.

16. You're chosen to lead your class in preparing for the 26th January celebration performance. How will you make sure everyone works well together?
- (a) Encourage everyone to share their ideas and decide together what to do.
 - (b) Tell everyone exactly what to do without asking for their opinions.
 - (c) Ask only your best friends to help you plan the performance.
 - (d) Let others handle the planning and just focus on your own part.
17. Read this Nursery rhyme.
- Old Mother Hubbard
Went to the cupboard
To get her poor doggie a bone,
When she got there
The cupboard was bare
So the poor little doggie had none.*
- How would you solve Mother Hubbard's problem in a creative way?
- (a) See if there are other things in the cupboard and try making a delicious meal for the dog from the resources available.
 - (b) Ask a neighbor if they have any bones to spare for the dog.
 - (c) Go to the store to get the dog a new bone.
 - (d) Let the dog stay hungry and give up on solving this problem.
18. You're in class and your friend is trying to talk to you during an important lesson. How can you show self-control?
- (a) Politely tell your friend that you'll talk to them after the lesson is over.
 - (b) Start talking with your friend and ignore the lesson.
 - (c) Ignore your friend completely, even if they get upset.
 - (d) Whisper back to your friend while trying to listen to the lesson at the same time.
19. You accidentally bump into someone and cause them to drop their books. What should you do?
- (a) Apologize sincerely and help them pick up their books.
 - (b) Walk away quickly and hope they don't notice it was you.
 - (c) Laugh it off and tell them it wasn't a big deal.
 - (d) Say "sorry" quietly and leave without helping.

GRADES
3-5

20. After finishing a snack in the school cafeteria, you notice that you left some crumbs and trash on the table. What should you do?
- (a) Clean up the crumbs and throw away the trash before leaving.
 - (b) Leave the crumbs and trash for someone else to clean up.
 - (c) Ask a friend to clean up the mess for you.
 - (d) Quickly leave the table and hope the cafeteria staff will handle it.