My Mother Saw a Dancing Bear

My mother saw a dancing bear

By the schoolyard, a day in June

The keeper stood with chain and bar

And whistle-pipe and played a tune.

The bruin lifted up its head.

And lifted up its dusty feet,

And all the children laughed to see

It caper in the summer heat.

They watched as for the Queen it died

They watched it march. They watched it halt.

They heard the keeper as he cried,

'Now, roly-poly!' 'Somersault.'

And then my mother said, there came
The keeper with a begging-cup,
The bear with burning coat of fur,
Shaming the laughter to a stop.

They paid a penny for the dance,
But what they saw was not the show;
Only, in bruin's aching eyes,
Far-distant forests, and the snow.

—Charles Causley
